

What is happening 'now' has changed our world.

What we do in the dust is more important than ever before.

“Social interactions are proposed to be a basic human need ... it is possible that the effects of such deprivation of social contact will extend beyond the period of physical distancing and might affect the population for years to come.”

Orben, Tomova, and Blakemore – Lancet Child and Adolescent Health (2020).

A close-up portrait of a man with a grey beard, wearing a futuristic black helmet with a large, dark feathered headdress. He is wearing a reflective, metallic visor that obscures his eyes. The background is a bright, hazy sunset or sunrise, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a strong lens flare and illuminating the scene with a warm, golden light. The man's expression is neutral, and he is looking directly at the camera.

We are in times that can't count on large gatherings to grow the movement

To be a catalyst for good things in our communities and on our new forever home Quaggafontein.

AfrikaBurn is a vast community collective and globally recognised art movement, generative of value and difference in the world.

We are:
artists
innovators makers thinkers collaborators & doers

You're already a patron.

You've been one since you found the Burnerverse,
a donor for as long as you've attended AfrikaBurn.

It wouldn't be the same level of 'spectacularly life changing',
if it wasn't for you.

AfrikaBurn is not a self-driven vehicle, and in order to keep our mutant engine running, we ask the community to continue nurturing this thing we built and love.

The road ahead...

For survival, AfrikaBurn requires R500k per month
[approximately 35k USD | 29k EUR | 25k GBP | 32k CHF]
to maintain foundational operations that facilitate our creative community

R6m [420k USD] 350k EUR] needed to April 2022
[...other and crypto currencies welcome]

The sky is the limit when we thrive.

Your money enables a growing movement for change and we're asking you to step up and support us now, to continue the good work.

A surreal landscape at sunset. In the foreground, a person in a bright green dress stands with their back to the camera, holding a red hula hoop. The ground is dark and flat. In the middle ground, several tall, thin, spire-like structures made of small, reflective objects rise from the ground. To the right, a large, white, spherical balloon with vertical lines and small dark spots floats in the sky. The background shows distant mountains under a sky with soft, golden light from the setting sun. Other people are visible in the distance, some near the balloon and others near the spires.

“The ultimate, hidden truth of the world is that it is something that we make, and could just as easily make differently.”

David Graeber
